Overview:

In today's global economy, Sustainable Procurement has become a crucial component of business strategy. Sustainability is no longer a choice; it's a Necessity.

It has rightly been said that “WORLD IS A SUPPLY CHAIN”. In a metaphorical way it highlights the global nature of Procurement & Supply Chain. This involves sourcing of raw material, manufacturing, transportation, distribution of goods and services to customers. In summary this contributes a major share to carbon footprints.

Globally, governments spend approximately US $13 trillion in public contracts every year, representing approximately 12 percent of GDP. By adopting sustainable practices, governments can lead by example, reduce their environmental footprint, and contribute to the overall transition toward a more sustainable and environmentally responsible economy. Additionally, it can have a positive influence on the private sector to innovate and produce greener products and services.

Sustainable Procurement expedites the implementation of the Paris Agreement adopted in 2015 during COP21. The same was also emphasized during the recent G20 Meeting in India.

Our Sustainable Procurement Training Program equips professionals with the knowledge and tools needed to drive positive change through responsible sourcing and procurement practices.

ISM-INDIA & PPPAI welcome's you to join the 3-days online training on Sustainable Procurement with technical support from The World Bank and UNEP.
